

ARTIST HOUSING FAQ

Thank you for your interest in housing a Te Deum guest artist! Having these elite musicians in Kansas City to perform with Te Deum is a special opportunity for our community, and your willingness to be a host to these artists is vital, and a lot of fun! Below you will find answers to some frequently asked questions regarding the artists and your potential responsibilities as a host.

Who are the artists I would be housing?

Te Deum's guest artists are professional musicians that fly in from all over the world to participate in performances with Te Deum. Both singers and instrumentalists attended the most prestigious music schools and travel nationally and internationally working as professional musicians.

What would my responsibilities as a host include?

As a host, we would ask that you provide lodging and breakfast for the artists in your home. Lodging includes a private room, bathroom, and towels. Te Deum will cover transportation while the artists are in town, including to and from the airport, however if you are willing to do some driving or have an extra car you are willing to lend for a few days, please let us know. If you would like to host the artists for additional meals, and their schedule allows it, you are welcome to do so.

What kind of schedule will the artists have while they are in town?

The artists will generally need housing for 3-4 nights. They have a full day of rehearsals or performances while they are in town, going from approximately 11am-10pm. Because of the late evening rehearsals, it is recommended that you give the artists a spare house key so you do not have to wait up for them.

Thank You and Recognition

As a Guest Artist host, your name will appear in the program as a special thank you and you will receive two complimentary tickets to the performance!
